

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENTTuition

Tuition shall be charged to all persons age 21 or older who wish to attend the regular educational program. Nonresident students below age 21 shall pay tuition unless such students have been released by their resident district and accepted for attendance in the district by approval of the superintendent. The formula for determining the rate of tuition is fixed by the state superintendent of public instruction.

Tuition

Students who are age twenty-one or older who have not been granted a release by the resident district or SPI must pay the full costs of education in the district. If full costs are not collected, the district may be criticized for its use of public funds (gift of public funds).
