

SCHOOL FACILITIESProject Supervision

The superintendent shall oversee the progress of all construction projects. The project should be managed in a manner to assure consistency with the budget and with estimated completion target dates.

For complex projects involving substantial capital outlay, the board may hire an outside person to supervise the project. Any such person hired in this capacity shall be paid from funds set aside for this purpose.